

International Network for Research on Inequalities in Child Health (INRICH)

Source: Warwick Institute of Health Web site - http://www2.warwick.ac.uk/fac/cross_fac/healthatwarwick/events/international_network_for/

The International Network for Research on Inequalities in Child Health (INRICH) was created in 2008 by a group of researchers interested in tackling the problem of health disparities among children. The researchers come from various field of studies ranging from medical doctors, social scientists and epidemiologists to economists.

Agenda for November 2009 Workshop in Warwick

Friday 6th November:

8.00-9.00	Arrival and registration
9.00-10.30	1st Workshop session Chair: Clare Blackburn 1. Introductions & apologies [15 minutes] 2. Update on progress [15 minutes] – Louise, Nick, 3. Brief presentations of current research [5 minutes each – 60-75 minutes total]
10.30-10.45	Coffee Break
10.45-12.00	4. Systematic review of early poverty and child health inequalities: report of further work with discussion [45 minutes] – Nick Spencer/Louise Séguin 5. Suggestions for new network members [15 minutes]
12.00-13.15	Lunch
13.15-17.30	2nd Workshop Session: Pathways to child health inequalities Chair: Louise Seguin
13:15-14:00	Intergenerational pathways to child health inequalities – what do we know and what do we need to find out? Nick Spencer
14:00-14.15	Discussion
14:30-14:45	Early adversity and future health. Childhood roots of disparities. Tom Boyce
14:45-15:00	Discussion
15:00-15:15	Coffee Break
15:15-15:45	Poverty and childhood disability: cause or consequence? Clare Blackburn, Nick Spencer, Janet Read
15:45-17:30	Small group discussions with a focus on informing future collaborative work.
18:30	Dinner

Saturday 7th November:

8.30-12.00	3rd Workshop Session: Promoting child health equity through health and social policy Chair: Nick Spencer
8.45- 9:15	Plenary from yesterday's small group discussions
9:15- 9:45	Child health and well being in rich nations: the role of income inequality. Kate Pickett Discussion
9 :45 -10:15	Social policies and the health of children. Jody Heyman
10.15-10.45	Coffee Break
10.45-11.30	What works in reducing child health inequalities? Liz Waters Discussion
11.30-12.15	Discussion with a focus on links with policy makers
12.15- 13.30	Lunch
13.30-15.00	4th Workshop session: Future work Chairs: Louise Seguin and Nick Spencer Discussion on research questions & preparing outline of collaborative projects
15.00-15.30	Coffee Break
15.30-17.00	Discussion of further work of INRICH including future programme, involvement of students and links with policy makers
17.00	Close of Workshop

Supported by:

La Direction des Relations Internationales

Foundation for the Sociology of Health and Illness
Child Care Health and Development Trust