

INRICH 4th Annual Workshop Final Agenda

Erasmus Medical Center, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

June 28-29, 2012

PRE-WORKSHOP DAY (OPTIONAL): WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27, 2012

Presented by Erasmus MC, GGD & CEPHIR

Visit to the multidisciplinary Center for Youth and Family in an inner-city neighbourhood

- 11:45-12:00 • Departure from Inntel Hotel, Rotterdam Centre
Schiedamsedijk 140, 3011 EA Rotterdam
Tel: E. Hafkamp +31616503146
- Arrive at Center for Youth and Families
Maashaven O.z. 218, 3072 HS Rotterdam
- 12:00-12:30 • Presentation by youth healthcare physician
- 12:30-13:15 • Lunch
- 13:15-13:30 • Discussion with intervention nurses
- 13:30-14:30 • "Guided tour" through Center for Youth and Family
- 14:30 • Departure to Erasmus MC
Dr. Molewaterplein 60 3015 GJ Rotterdam

CEPHIR Seminar—Policy, Practice and Science: hand-in-hand to tackle the problem of inequalities in childhood health—Chair: Prof. Dr. Hein Raat

Location: Erasmus University, Dr Molewaterplein 50, 3015 GE Rotterdam, room AE406

- 15:00–15:05 • Introduction
Prof. Dr. Hein Raat
(Public Health, Erasmus MC Rotterdam)
- 15:05–15:25 • "Policy, Practice and Science: hand-in-hand to tackle the problem of inequalities in childhood health"
Prof. Nick Spencer
(School of Health and Social Studies, University of Warwick, UK)
- 15:25–15:45 • "Local strategies against inequalities in childhood health"
Onno de Zwart
(Director Municipal Health Services Rotterdam Rijnmond)
- 15:45–16:00 • Discussion
- 16:00–16:20 • "Addressing risk factors for child abuse among low SES pregnant women: RCT of the Nurse Family Partnership in Dutch preventive health care."
Jamila Mejdoubi, PhD student
(EMGO, VUmc Amsterdam)
- 16:20–17:00 • Discussion

Welcome reception

Location: Room AE406

17:00

Option to go out for dinner as a group

Erasmus MC – University Medical Center Rotterdam – Dept. of Public Health
Entrance at Dr. Molewaterplein 60 3015 GJ Rotterdam, Netherlands
Tel. + 31 10 703 8460

INRICH 4th Annual Workshop Final Agenda

Erasmus Medical Center, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

June 28-29, 2012

DAY I: THURSDAY, JUNE 28

Location: Room AE-327

NB: For every guest speaker there are 45 minutes allowed which include: 25-30 min for their presentation and 15-20 minutes for discussion.

For students 30 minutes are allowed including 10-15 minutes for their presentation and 15-20 minutes for discussion.

NB: Posters will be displayed continuously during the workshop (see page 5).

AM

- 8:00–8:45 • Registration of participants
• Light breakfast
- 8:45–9:00 • Welcome and introduction to the workshop that will look at some challenges of research on child health inequalities

Hein Raat
(Professor Erasmus MC)

- 1- Pathways and Theories;
- 2- Methodology of longitudinal analysis
- 3- Program and policies.

Pathways and theories—Chair: Hein Raat

- 9:00–9:45 • "Poverty, stress, and self-regulation"
Gary Evans
(Cornell University, NY, USA)
- 9:45–10:30 • "Trajectories of poverty since birth and child health at 10 years old in a Quebec birth cohort"
Louise Séguin
(Université de Montréal, Québec, Canada)
- 10:30–10:45 • Break
- 10:45–11:15 • "The association of childhood poverty trajectories with weight in a Quebec birth cohort"
Lisa Kakinami
(post-doctoral fellow with Gilles Paradis and Louise Séguin, McGill University, Montreal, Canada)
- 11:15–12:00 • "Childhood Roots of Cardiovascular Disease in Adulthood"
Karen Matthews
(University of Pittsburgh, PA, USA)
- 12:30–13:30 • Lunch

INRICH 4th Annual Workshop Final Agenda

Erasmus Medical Center, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

June 28-29, 2012

DAY I (continued)

PM

Methodology of longitudinal analysis—Chair: Dr. Nick Spencer

- 13:45–14:30 • “Mining Longitudinal Data: An Illustration from the Québec Longitudinal Study of Child Development pertaining to Body Mass Index and Body Image”
Lise Gauvin
(Université de Montréal, Québec, Canada)
- 14:30–15:15 • “Socio-economic and ethnic differences in early childhood health and the impact of sensitive periods in the pre, peri- and postnatal period.”
Hein Raat, Esther Hafkamp, Anne Wijtzes, Ilse Flink & Selma Bouthoorn,
(Erasmus MC, Rotterdam, Netherlands)
- 15:15–15:30 • Break
- 15:30–16:00 • “Socioeconomic gradients in child health and development in relation to income inequality”
Philippa Bird
(PhD student with Kate Pickett, University of York, UK)
- 16:00–16:30 • “Trajectories of socioeconomic inequalities in health, behaviour and academic achievement across childhood and adolescence: findings from a birth cohort”
Laura Howe
(post-doctoral fellow with Debbie Lawlor, University of Bristol, UK)
- 16:30–17:00 • “Socioeconomic inequalities in childhood FeNO”
Esther Hafkamp
(PhD student with Hein Raat, Erasmus MC, University Medical Center, Rotterdam, Netherlands)

INRICH dinner offered by Erasmus Medical Center

19:00–22:00

INRICH 4th Annual Workshop Final Agenda

Erasmus Medical Center, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

June 28-29, 2012

DAY II: FRIDAY, JUNE 29

Location: Room AE-327

AM

Programs and policies—Chair: Louise Séguin

- 8:30–9:15 • "Scandinavian policies for reduction of child health inequalities"
Sven Bremberg
(Karolinska Institute, Stockholm)
- 9:15–10:00 • "Child Poverty or Inequality, which is the better explanation for inequalities in adult health?"
Dave Gordon
(School for Public Policies, University of Bristol, UK)
- 10:00–10:15 • Break
- 10:15–11:00 • "Urban Perinatal Health. Preconception care and risk assessment during pregnancy"
Semih Denktas
(Erasmus MC, Rotterdam, The Netherlands)
- 11:00–11:30 • "Generating evidence to support an equitable improvement in newborn survival in Asia and Africa"
Tanja Houweling
(post-doctoral fellow, Erasmus, MC, Rotterdam, Netherlands)
- 11:30–12:00 • "On the buses"
Helen Roberts
(Institute of Child Health, London, UK)
- 12:00–13:30 • Lunch
- Presentation by Jeff Goldhagen on his new teaching program on child health equity for paediatricians and his call for our collaboration

PM

Recent work on child health inequalities—Chair: Jennifer McGrath

- 13:30–14:15 • "Poverty, family instability and child adjustment – Evidence from the UK Millennium Cohort"
Ingrid Schoon
(Institute of Education, University of London)
- 14:15–14:45 • "Subjective socioeconomic status and adolescent health outcomes: A systematic review and meta-analysis"
Elizabeth Quon
(PhD student with Jennifer McGrath), Concordia University, Montreal, Quebec, Canada)
- 14:45–15:15 • "Social inequality and substance abuse from an intergenerational perspective"
Karl Gauffin
(PhD student with Anders Hjern, University of Uppsala, Uppsala, Sweden)
- 15:15–15:30 • Break

INRICH 4th Annual Workshop Final Agenda

Erasmus Medical Center, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

June 28-29, 2012

DAY II (continued)

Discussion on the Future of INRICH

- 15:30–17:30
- Orientation and objectives to pursue
 - Their needs and what INRICH can do for them
 - Possible research or teaching collaborations:
 - Research collaboration: Kate Pickett, York, UK
 - New teaching program on child health equity for paediatricians: Jeff Goldhagen, Florida, USA
 - Possible students exchanges
 - Budget
 - Varia

Invitation to join: "Walking Dinner" in Delft

- 18:00–22:30
- More info on this historic town not far from Rotterdam
<http://tinyurl.com/7rkw5lu>

POSTERS: DISPLAYED CONTINUOUSLY DURING THE WORKSHOP

Location: T.B.A.

"Stimulating national development of interventions for children at risk"

Anton Lager, Stockholm University

"Inequalities in childhood obesity trends: Data from three British birth cohorts"

Nichola Shakelton, Institute of Education Univ. of London

"A partnership between academic paediatrics and the NGO sector to review the implementation, with regards to health, of the UNCRC in Wales in readiness for the next UN Examination of the UK"

Elsbeth Webb, Cardiff University

POST-WORKSHOP DAY: SATURDAY, JUNE 30

Location: T.B.A.

Discussion with researchers and their students involved in the CIHR grant proposal—Lead by Jennifer McGrath

Discussion of our collaborative research project, following the acceptance or rejection of the last proposal to CIHR.

Note: Jennifer McGrath will send a detailed agenda for the morning